01 Start on the official website

Check the address, then select Register at the top right.

www.echobit.com

Actual public homepage · Checked 2026.11.02

Find the top-right menu

New account: Register
Existing account: Log in

Registration menu enlarged

Have your own email address or phone ready.
First check whether your region and intended product are supported.

02 Enter your email and password

Start on the Email tab. A referral code is optional.

Actual public registration page · Before entering details

01

Enter your email

Use your own email that you can access.

02

Set a password

Choose a password that meets the stated rules.

03

Check referral code

If you received a code, check it before entering it.

Read the terms. If you agree, select Register.
Never share your password or verification code.

03 Register with a phone number

To use a phone number instead of email, select Phone.

Actual public registration page · Before entering details

01

Check country code

Choose the country code for your phone number.

02

Enter your details

Enter your phone number and password.

03

Check referral code

If you received a code, check it before entering it.

Read the terms. If you agree, select Register.
Choose either email or phone registration.

04 Complete code verification

When prompted, enter the code sent to your own email address or phone.

Process overview · Not an actual verification screen

1 Check your email or SMS

Check the inbox or text messages for the email address or phone number you registered with.

2 Enter it on the exchange website

Enter the code directly on the Echobit verification screen.

3 Check registration is complete

Look for the completion message or check that you are logged in.

If the code does not arrive

Check your email address, phone number, country code and spam folder.
Follow the current screen for resending and code expiry.

Never share your password or verification code.

05 Start identity verification

After logging in, open identity verification in User Center.

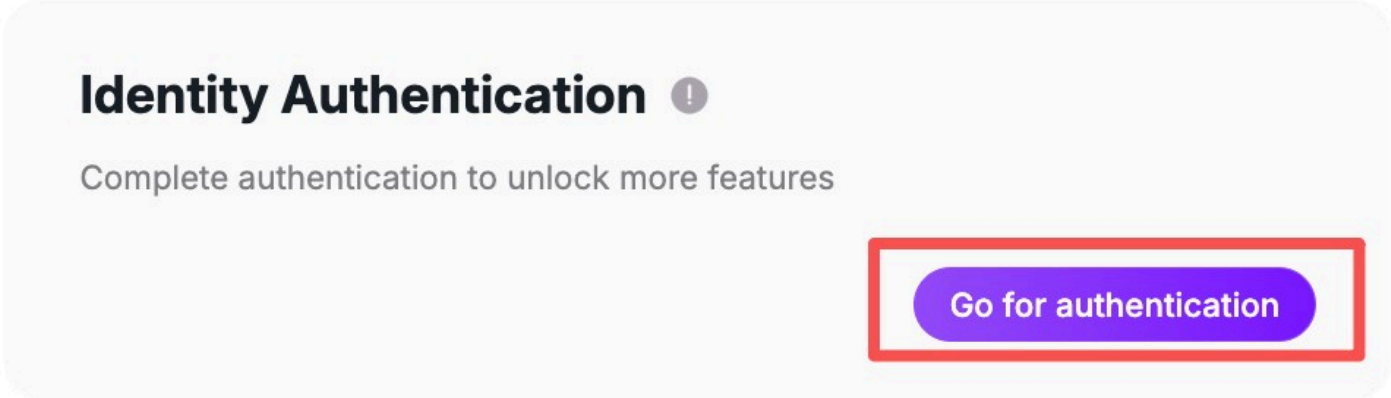

Official help illustration · The current screen may differ

01 User Center

Open the profile menu and select User Center.

02 Go for authentication

Start verification in the Identity Authentication section.

06 Submit your details and photos

Enter your own name, country and ID details accurately.

Official help illustration · No real ID or personal details

01

Enter your details

Enter your name and country, then select Next step. Select your ID type and enter your ID number.

02

Prepare photos

Prepare the ID photos and identity-verification photos requested on the current screen.

Check before submitting

Check the photos and file requirements on the current screen.
Review your documents, then select Confirm to submit.
Submit ID and verification photos only on the exchange website.

07

Finish registration and verification

Check each item yourself and complete any remaining steps.

- [ ] I can log in with my own email address or phone number.
- [ ] I have checked whether the required identity verification is approved.
- [ ] I have checked the security settings required by the exchange.
- [ ] I have not shared passwords, codes or ID documents in chat.

Registration is separate from API setup

This guide covers account registration and identity verification.
API setup, deposits and trading are not covered here.

Official help

Registration guide →

Identity verification guide →